

Our Mission:

GFWC New Tampa Junior Woman's Club (NTJWC) is a 501 (c)3, non-profit organization dedicated to community improvement by enhancing the lives of others through volunteer service.

About us:

NTJWC is one of the largest GFWC clubs in the State of Florida, and has won numerous prestigious state awards over the past 13 years. During the 2008-2009 administration the club donated over $57,000 and 6800 volunteer hours on over 50 projects.

The club has had several members serve on the GFWC State Board. Currently there are five members in state positions.

Each spring the club hosts the Night of 5000 Charity Ball which raises money for a selected charity and funds club projects for the following year. The 2009-2010 featured charity was Camp Hopetake.

The club year runs from August-May, and we meet the 2nd Monday of the month at the New Tampa YMCA. It is a great opportunity to meet some new friends while giving your time to worthy causes. You can volunteer 25 hours or 1000 hours...the choice is yours on how involved you would like to be.

Provisional Class

GFWC New Tampa Junior Woman's Club is open for membership to all ladies in New Tampa and surrounding areas including Wesley Chapel, Lutz, Land O' Lakes, Zephyrhills and Tampa.

Prospective members must complete a provisional term, which is currently eight months from September to May, complete orientation activities, assist in our major fundraiser through a minimum of 5 volunteer hours, attend 3 general meetings and fulfill all financial obligations including dues. In addition 20 volunteer hours must be completed in any project area. After the completion of the provisional requirements, new members are inducted at our annual installation ceremony in May.

Provisional classes are formed every summer. If you are interested in joining, please contact the Vice President of Membership Recruitment via the link on our website.

Juniorettes

Young women, ages 14-18, are invited to join the New Tampa Juniorettes. This volunteer service organization for teens operates under the GFWC umbrella with guidance from NTJWC member advisors.

General Federation of Woman's Clubs

The GFWC was established in 1890, and is an international organization of community based women's clubs. GFWC is responsible for the establishment of 75 percent of America's public libraries, was instrumental in the passage of child labor laws, the Pure Food and Drug act and has supported equal rights and responsibilities for women. Annual contributions of GFWC clubs average 13 million hours and $37 million dollars donated through 168,400 local club projects. The structure of GFWC and its state federations allows member clubs to address the emerging needs of individual communities and to respond quickly to calls for help. Local clubs have the ability to tap into resources and expertise at national, state and district levels while maintaining the freedom to develop programs which suit their local community needs.

Unity in Diversity

Although the GFWC tradition dates back to 1890, our members are much younger! We are actively working to shape that tradition to match the interests and lifestyles of women today and in the future. NTJWC members come from many backgrounds. We are a diverse group of women united by our desire to make our community and our world a better place to live.
